

INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

The editorial board only accepts manuscripts that are written in English, which have not been previously published and which are presented at the Creative Future Insights 2023 conference. Manuscripts should be submitted only in electronic form online via the official conference web page Full-Paper.

CONTRIBUTORS ARE REQUESTED TO CONSIDER THE FOLLOWING:

Articles:

1. The length of articles (including references, notes, figures and tables) should not exceed 3500 words
2. Contributions should be double spaced and all pages should be numbered.
3. The first page should contain the author's name and surname, the name and address of the institution in which the author is employed, and the title of the article written in capital letters (The editorial board will delete this information before sending the manuscript to be reviewed).
4. Equations, figures and tables should be numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals and included in the paper in order they appear in the text. Tables and figures should be fully titled. Footnotes to tables and figures (sources and notes) should be placed at the bottom of the table and figure.
5. The proceedings use APA style (<https://apastyle.apa.org/>) to format references in the text and bibliography.
6. In the reference list or bibliography, the author should provide full references for all the works mentioned in the text; also, the reference list should contain only those sources mentioned in the text. They should be listed alphabetically according to the surname of the author, and chronologically if a particular author has more than one work. If several works by the same author were published in the same year, they should be differentiated by letters (a, b, c, etc.) following the year of publication. If a work was written by several authors, all authors should be listed instead of using "et al." or "and collaborators".
7. When an article or bibliographic record has a DOI, use the DOI number in the reference list (it is possible to look up the DOI number here: <http://www.crossref.org/guestquery/>).
8. For works accessible through the internet, the main information (title, author etc.) and the source (<http://>) should be provided.
9. A summary written in English should also be included. The summary should not exceed 300 words and should indicate the aim of the work, the methodology used, and the most important findings and conclusions. Authors should specify up to five key words.
10. Graphical appendices need to be in black and white, saved in original format, with their size and complexity adjusted to the format of the proceeding so that all elements are clear and visible.

Formatting references in the text according to APA style:

The sources should be cited in the text, not in the footnotes. The reference should be in brackets, containing the author's surname and year of publication e.g.: (Mumford, 1962) or Mumford (1962). The page number should be included for quotations or references to books e.g.: (Mumford, 1962, p. 99).

If the reference was written by two authors, both should be mentioned e.g.: (Berger & Luckmann, 1992).

If the work has three, four or five authors, all the authors' surnames should be listed in parentheses after the first citation. In repeated citations the form "et al." is used. (Andlar, Aničić, Pereković, Rechner Dika, & Hrdalo, 2011); (Andlar et al., 2011).

If the work was written by six or more authors, the form "et al." is used from the first citation on, e.g.: (Prelog et al., 1979) or Prelog et al. (1979).

All references in the text should be given as they were given the first time, i.e., forms such as "ibid.", "Op. cit." and the like, are not used. Authors should use footnotes exclusively for commenting on or expanding on what is referred to in the text.
